

For immediate release: Monday, August 21, 2023

Discover Nuit Blanche Regina at Central Library

For one night only, the 2023 Nuit Blanche Regina festival will showcase artwork and performances downtown from emerging and established artists. Regina Public Library's (RPL) Central location will be one of the festival hubs, offering fun performances, programs, and multi-media art.

This year's Nuit Blanche takes place in Regina's downtown core on Saturday, August 26 from sunset to midnight. The festival theme is "This Fleeting Moment".

"As an important part of Regina's downtown core, we are thrilled to take part in Nuit Blanche Regina again this year," said Alyssa Fearon, Director/Curator Dunlop Art Gallery at RPL. "The festival allows us to connect with the community and showcase the diversity of our artists and offerings."

During the festival, visit Central Library for a wide variety of programming – indoors and outdoors! RPL will host a sidewalk karaoke sing-along, an open mic night accompanied by live painting, an interactive green screen puppetry activity in our Digital Media Studio, all-night art tours of Dunlop Art Gallery's (DAG) current exhibition, and a special DAG installation in our Sunken Garden.

All RPL Nuit Blanche events are free; drop in at Central Library between 8:00pm - 11:00pm on August 26.

For more information about RPL's Nuit Blanche programs, visit reginalibrary.ca/featured-events.

-30-

For more information:

Katie Murphy-Balkwill, Marketing and Communications Consultant

Regina Public Library

(306) 777-6114

kbalkwill@reginalibrary.ca