

Regina Public Library Shows Their Love for the City

Show some love for Regina and tell the library all about it at I Love Regina Day on Saturday, August 17. RPL and Dunlop Art Gallery will have booths in the park where you can write (or draw!) love letters to Regina or create a collaborative woven sculpture.

This free event celebrates everything that makes Regina a great place to live, is fun for everyone, and a fantastic way to show love for our community.

"I Love Regina Day is the perfect time to celebrate all the things that make Regina a great place to live," says Nancy MacKenzie, Executive Director of Customer Experience. "And that includes the library, where you can enjoy fun and free programs all year round!"

If the park gets too warm, cool down at Central Library and take in a screening of Studio Ghibli's Pom Poko (PG-13) in the Film Theatre at 1:00 pm.

For more information about I Love Regina Day, visit www.reginalibrary.ca/featured-events.

-30-

For more information:
Courtney Bates-Hardy
Marketing and Communications Consultant
Regina Public Library
(306) 777-6182
chardy@reginalibrary.ca